Quality Associates Participates in 46th Annual Drug Information Association Meeting

Fulton, Md. – June 25, 2010 – Quality Associates, Inc. (QAI) www.qualityassociatesinc.com, an established provider of independent quality assurance and large-scale content management, imaging, systems integration and archiving, participated in the recent 2010 Drug Information Association (DIA) Annual Meeting. As a participant, QAI exhibited at the conference and was involved in hot-topic discussions involving document archival, collaboration and the future of electronic content. The conference was held June 13-17 at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center in Washington, D.C.

The DIA Annual Meeting is the premier event for professionals involved in all aspects of the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. Through work sessions, tutorials and speeches, the meeting is designed to strengthen relationships and foster innovation for better health outcomes.

Scott Swidersky, director, Information Systems, Quality Associates, Inc., said, “Over the past two years, QAI has seen increased interest in electronic content management – as well as Microsoft SharePoint and other workplace collaboration tools – across many industries, including associations and health sciences. The DIA Annual Meeting is a good fit for QAI and our subsidiary, DocPoint Solutions, because we can uniquely meet a company’s needs in the areas of quality assurance, scientific support, document imaging and archiving, and collaboration software. QAI provides these comprehensive services through our Information Services Division, Quality Assurance Division, and DocPoint subsidiary, enabling organizations to select a single provider for a myriad of needs.”
